

HM AEROSPACE

ASSISTANT FLIGHT INSTRUCTOR COURSE (AFI)

The Assistant Flight Instructor (AFI) course is designed to provide necessary skills and requirements to enable an individual to commercially train a cadet pilot. It is the fundamental course in becoming a Qualified Flying Instructor.

MINIMUM ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

- Letter of approval from the Malaysian Department of Civil Aviation
- An existing and valid CPL/IR from any country recognised by the International Civil Aviation Organisation (ICAO)
- Minimum age of seventeen (17) years
- Successful medical examination Class I with requisite certificate from DCA approved medical examiner
- Adequate competency in the English language and must have a minimum ICAO Level 4 Aviation English Competency endorsement in the CPL

COURSE DURATION

- The duration of this course is twelve (12) weeks for a total of ninety (90) hours of flight and ground training. The course is taken on a full-time basis

COURSE CONTENT

FLIGHT TRAINING

Flight training consists of thirty (30) hours on a single engine aircraft

GROUND TRAINING

Ground Training, Tutorials and Briefings consist of sixty (60) hours which includes the following subjects:

- Flight Rules and Procedures
- Navigation and Meteorology
- Basic Aerodynamics
- Airframes and Engines
- Aviation Law
- Instructional Techniques

On completion of the course, the pilot will be issued with an Assistant Flying Instructor Rating (AFI).